Who would want to leave their country and their family right before the Christmas holidays? Especially if you didn't know when you'd ever return?

Well, I know it sounds crazy, but that's exactly what I did just last month!

I believed that God told me to leave on a specific date right before Christmas, although I didn't know why at the time. But praise God, I knew why He wanted me to leave so early when I sat down in my plane seat!

I had an exit row seat on the 14 hour flight to Hong Kong and sat across from one of the flight attendants during take-off. She asked why I was going to Hong Kong and I told her about opening a Bible College there. She said that she was a Christian and attended one of the largest churches in Hong Kong with more than 50 cell groups and 11 different language congregations! She also said, "You should meet Robert as well. He is a pastor."

Robert Escueta was another flight attendant and also pastors a branch of a large church here- its one of 6 different congregations here in Hong Kong!

Since meeting these Christians on the plane, I have connected with so many pastors in such a short period of time to tell them that we are here to serve them and their people!

It's been said many times, "It's not what you know, but Who you know!"

The One I know is certainly on the move in Hong Kong and wanting everyone to know how GOOD He is. God is the Great Connector and His timing is perfect!

I am so blessed to be here and on the move with Him and it's all thanks to you! Thank you so much for your continued prayer and support. It is because of you that I am in the right place at the right time! Thank you!

I want to encourage you to get involved with what God is doing in Southeast Asia, the anticipation I have of what is "just around the corner" is awesome!

Always remember that God is good!

love, Carol
