IT'S A TEAM EFFORT!

Right now, as the Olympics are in full swing, the world is watching teams from around the world compete for medals. It's amazing to see these athletes on a team pull together and fight for one common goal!

This has inspired me to write to you about our God is Good Ministries team this month. I, Carol, am the leader of the ministry but I wouldn't be able to do the work without my team behind me.

Joe Hunt, with help from Sherryl McLean, handles all of your donations, my banking, and sending out the newsletters. When you write something to me he makes sure that I get it via email. He takes care of many things for me in the U.S.

God is Good Ministries is more than just me! (From L-R) Joe Hunt, Sandra Duarte and Jeff & Autumn Nakkula

Jeff and Autumn Nakkula of Catalyst Media, LLC take my long-winded ramblings and make it concise and very beautiful to read! Autumn

You were with me to give this man money for flowers, and show him the love of Jesus!

We also were able to give this sweet orphan girl a hug in Thailand this spring.

also designed my logo and the look of my website. Check it out at www.carolodenwald.com. Sandra Duarte handles the website itself and makes sure it is up-to-date. She also handles the email newsletter that so many of you are blessed by.

But to me the most important member of this team is YOU!

Remember the maimed man that sold roses on the street? You helped me give that man quarters to let him see Jesus.

You also came with me to Thailand to bless so many orphan children, like the little girl in the pink dress!

You ride with me in the bus to language classes, so that I can learn the local language to effectively reach more people with the Good News in THEIR language!

But more importantly, it's your prayers and generous donations have put all this work in motion. Thanks for being a part of the team and continuing to work with me to share Jesus in Southeast Asia!

love, Carol

Yes! I want to help you take the God's love to Southeast Asia!
